

and the Research Society for American Periodicals (RSAP)

PROUDLY ANNOUNCE THE 5th ANNUAL

$1000 Article Prize

For the best article on American periodicals by a pre-tenure or independent scholar published in a peer-reviewed academic journal with a publication date during 2013. Two runners up will receive $500 each.

The fifth annual ProQuest-RSAP Article Prize will be awarded at the American Literature Association (ALA) conference in Washington, DC, May 22-25, 2014. The winner and two runners up will be notified by the end of January 2014. They will be featured as panelists on an RSAP-sponsored distinguished papers panel at ALA, and will receive their awards at a reception hosted by the organization.

Applicants are invited to submit electronic copies of their articles with a contest registration form available at the RSAP website, <http://www.periodicalresearch.org>. Please send the article and registration form to the committee's chair, Bill Hardwig at whardwig@utk.edu <mailto: whardwig@utk.edu>. Documents should be sent in .doc, .docx, or .pdf format.

All copies must be formatted for blind review and thus without identifying references or title.

Deadline: December 13, 2013

Become a member of Research Society for American Periodicals by subscribing to American Periodicals
<http://www.amperiodicals.org>

Questions & Submissions?

Contact Prize Committee Chair, Bill Hardwig, at
whardwig@utk.edu

Highlights

- ◆ RSAP encourages submissions from individual authors as well as from journal editors
- ◆ Submissions are not limited to work utilizing electronic databases
- ◆ Winners must agree to register for and attend ALA 2014