

And the Research Society for American Periodicals Announce:

$1,500 Book Prize

RSAP encourages submissions from authors as well as from academic presses

Submissions are not limited to work that has utilized electronic databases

Winners are encouraged to attend ALA 2013

For the author of the best monograph on American periodicals published by an academic press between January 1, 2011 and December 31, 2012

The prize will be awarded at the American Literature Association (ALA) conference in Boston, MA, May 23–26, 2013.

Books will be judged by a peer review of three scholars chosen by the RSAP Advisory Board.

Applicants should submit a registration form (see details, below) and FOUR hard copies of their work to Craig Monk, Department of English, University of Lethbridge, 4401 University Drive West, Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, T1K 3M4 by December 1, 2012. The winner and up to two honorable mentions will be notified by March 1, 2013 and will be recognized at an RSAP-sponsored panel/event at ALA.

Applicants to the EBSCOhost–RSAP Book Prize must be current members of RSAP when they submit their books.
